Dear Laura Gilpin:

Thank you for the letter. This must be a quickie--I have to go teach a class. But it looks like no Albuquerque this fall, and now the Butcher show for Mitch Wilder looks as if it will have to wait for 1973. Oh, well.

You have me very curious indeed about the way your show was installed by the Indian girl. Maybe she should go on and do more shows? Anyway, I will have to miss the show but look forward to seeing your photographs in and of it.

So all my news wasn't really news, I'm afraid. But we'll get there one way or another. Preferably sooner than later, but one or the other.

Best,
