Audree, my dear: Thank you for your note and for the quotation. It is very much to the point. I am busy trying to bring order out of much chaos and re-arranging my life.
Fortunately I have much work to do. I enclose another quotation which I think is really Something.

And my belated thanks for dates. They are delicious and I eat one or two a day.

We laid dear Betty to rest yesterday in Colorado Springs. Now I plunge into work. Do you know Walt Whitman's poem Song of the Open road?
Verse 5 is my creed and I hope I can live it.

My love to you and my thanks Laura

Pray That you may Be Able

To suffer without complaining
To be misunderstood without explaining To endure without breaking
To give without receiving
To be ignored without grieving
To work without commanding
To love despite misunderstanding
To Turn to the Lord for guarding
To wait for his rewarding.
