Dear Ruth Marie:

It was so good to see you at Helen Blumenschien's. I only wish I had known you had been here for several days and could have had a chance for a long visit.

Ever since that time, I have been intending to return to you the most interesting little booklet you loaned me. As it happened, I had mailed it to you the day before I got your letter. I trust that it reached you safely and that all is well.

I hope that sometime this summer I can get up to the valley again and see all of you. I love just thinking about your part of the country which I know so well.

I think the historical research work you are doing on the San Luis Valley is wonderful. I only wish I had time for a little collaboration with you.

You are a good photographer in your own right, and I wish you the best of luck.

My best wishes always,

Laura Gilpin
