

August 30, 1972

Mrs. Helen Tegenfeldt
The Dillon Press,
106 Washington Ave.
Minneapolis, Minn. 55401

Dear Mrs. Tegenfeldt:-

Here are the prints as per your request of Aug. 25th.

There is one print (Navaho Hogan) not used in my book. The remaining all from the book.

	p. 92-93	The Little Shepherd
	p. 164	Tribal Council Room (note A. Wauneka)
	p. 170	Portrait of Annie Wauneka in 1954
two	p. 232	Bread Making at a Squaw Dance
	p. 226	Making Fry Bread at Ceremonial

As there was a discrepancy in page numbers I am sending the ~~three~~ prints as there is no picture of this on p.222, but there are two on p/ 232 which I presume id the page you were referring to. Use which ever you want and please return the others.

This brings my confirmation on your use of these with the proper credit line.

Thank you very much. I shall look forward to seeing this biography.

Sincerely yours,

August 30,
1972

The Dillon Press,
Minneapolis, Minn.

For reproduction use of five photographs © $25. $125.

one print does not need U.T.P. credit line
four credit line on back of the prints.