Dear Miss Gilpin,

In the fall of 1972, we are planning to publish AMERICAN INDIANS TODAY, a book for young readers about the way some 200 tribes are living throughout the United States today. We are in desperate need of photographs, and came upon your beautiful book THE ENDURING NAVAHO.

Darla B. Kiker has already given us permission to reproduce one photograph for a fee of $25.00. Would you be kind enough to send us a print suitable for reproduction? The picture we are interested in is of a hogan (from the outside) with sheep grazing all around and a view of the canyons in the distance. I don't have a xerox copy on hand to send you, but if you are unsure of which photograph I mean, please let me know and I will get one.

Time is short for us (as it always is in the book world!), so if you would tend to this matter as soon as you have a chance, we would be deeply grateful.

Looking forward to hearing from you, I am

Yours sincerely,

Phyllis Hoffman
