Dear Laura:

The selection of photographs for the Sunset Pictorial on the Southwest has finally been completed, and we are pleased to inform you that some of yours have been selected to appear in the book. We are delighted to have your fine photography represented and we hope you will be pleased with its reproduction when you see it in the complimentary copy that will be mailed to you on publication this fall.

We are returning herewith the photographs that were not chosen for reproduction in the book. Payment will follow presently.

Cordially,
