Dear Miss Gilpin:

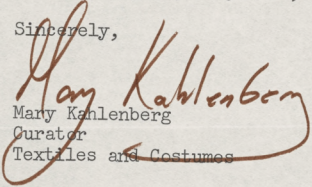

Thank you for being so punctual with your text. It is excellent and adds just the human touch which is missing from the introduction. We are very pleased and grateful that you consented to write it for us.

A part of the history section overlaps our introduction, where we go into more detail concerning Bosque Redondo and its affect on the tribe. For that reason we have decided to delete some of this section from your text. We will send you the final version in a few days. I hope that it will meet with your approval. If it does not, please do not hesitate to let us know.

Enclosed is a bill prepared by the Museum for your introduction fee. If you will sign and return it, we will begin to process it through the County channels.

Thank you again, very much, for the marvelous introduction.

Sincerely,

Mary Kahlenberg
