Acting upon this recommendation, our Editorial Board requests your completion of the enclosed form so that your biographical data may be included in this year's edition.

You are to be commended for this honor and recognition. Personalities selected for this publication are citizens whose background, service, and past achievements are worthy of note by other citizens. The volume is reviewed by businessmen, journalists, librarians, historians, and biographers; and is a useful addition to one's library and a source of pride for posterity. Additional information is provided on the enclosed brochure.

Again, congratulations on your selection for biographical inclusion in the 1972 Edition of PERSONALITIES OF THE WEST AND MIDWEST.
