Dear Laura,

Only today I learned of the death of your dear friend. I am so sorry you have lost such a cherished companion with whom you had shared so many wonderful and enlightening experiences, so many years of rewarding friendship.
Please accept my most sincere sympathy.

I did not call you before coming to Colorado Springs for the holidays, and had come down with a miserable cold. Perhaps it is just as well that I did not, for your mind and heart must have been deeply occupied at the time.

Before long, I'll plan to call, - and I hope - when it is convenient for you, that I may come to see you.

Affectionately

Francis Hamp Park
