Dear Laura:

I just saw the lovely photograph you took of Los Luceros which was reproduced in the Albuquerque Journal. The Roadrunner Real Estate Agency in Santa Fe is advertising the property for sale at $600,000 CASH. The old house must be very interesting, along with the court room, jail, chapel and gallows!

Anyway, this all brought to mind the photos you were going to send to us--of Pablita. We paid for all the pics, but we still have coming 2 16 x 20's @ $25.00 each and 1 8 x 10. I may have changed my mind about the ones I wanted last March, so I'm sending you the glossy photos with instructions on the back.

We haven't been to Santa Fe in months and months, but perhaps we can make it one day before the summer is over. At any rate, perhaps we can drive up and pick up the photos when you have them ready if you'll let us know when.

Helen tells me you have been extremely busy and I know you have! Are you finished with the photographing of Canyon de Chelly?

I am enclosing a copy of our transactions as of March 28, 1972.

Fred joins me in sending best wishes to you, and we hope to see you in the near future.

Fondly,

To: Fred & Mgt. Chase
