Dear Miss Gilpin:

I am the editor here for Claire Morrill's book, A TAOS MOSAIC: PORTRAIT OF A NEW MEXICO VILLAGE. We are pleased to be publishing this book and delighted that it will be illustrated by your stunning photographs.

We expect to have sample press proofs for a few of the illustrations next week. We will send these to you immediately, and hope that you will let us know your opinion of them by telephone as soon as possible, as manufacturing of the book awaits your approval of photographic reproduction.

We have noticed that a number of the prints we have show scratches and other small marks. They came to us mounted and in a three-ring binder, and may have been handled a good deal since they were made. We will send you a list of the illustrations indicating the condition of each, to see what you think should be done, if anything.

Sincerely,

Wanda Conger
