Dear Miss ^{Laura} Gilpin:

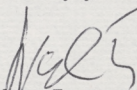

A copy of the handsome book, THE ENDURING NAVAJO, just arrived and I must confess that I dropped everything to look through it rather carefully.

I will take it home tonight so that I may enjoy it at leisure over the week-end. Thank you so much for sending it.

It was wonderful to see you again at lunch
after all these years and to find you so full of creative ideas. Do keep up your wonderful work. I hope that we may be able to do something together in the near future.

All good wishes.

Cordially yours,

Walter Frese
