Dear Laura Gilpin,

It's been a long time since our dinner together in Santa Fe with Mari and Louie Rosen. I'm happy to report your friends in Sandy Spring remember you — especially Stanley Stabler, Gladys Tumbleson and Margaret Brooke — and all are proud of your work.

You asked about Elsa Bentley; she is at rest in the Friends Cemetery next to the old Meeting House.

Our copy of The Enduring Navaho has been well shared and appreciated, I'm so glad we had the opportunity to meet you, but the time was much too short.

Hope the ~~enclosed~~ Sesquicentennial Booklet will stir a few good memories. - being mailed separately
 Our visit to your home was way too short.
 Warmly,
 Betsy & Herb Kenney
