Dear Laura:

This note is to confirm our arrangements for your visit here in April to lecture at the opening of our exhibition of the collections of Alice Bemis Taylor.

The date for the formal opening of the Arts Center was on April 20, 1936. We would like to schedule your lecture on Saturday evening, April 20, so that our festivities will coincide with the anniversary date.

We will pay your transportation costs and can offer you a lecture fee of $100. Hazel and Ben Abbot have told me that they would like you to stay with them; I know you will want to be with old friends, but be assured that Nancy and I stand ready to offer hospitality if any of the other plans to stay overnight or for a few days do not materialize.

Your slides can be projected in the theater. Single or double projection are both easily managed.

Every good wish, Milo M. Naeve
