Dear Laura —

so many of your friends are popping up here. I hope they are sending you notes. Mr. & Mrs. Hoyt were up today.

Your postcards are selling very well, too. my check^{was} for the first batch. I didn't realize more were on the way. I'll buy those, too, but will wait 'til I get some of the money owed me. A $2,300. error in my checkbook addition really floored me. my accountant broke the news to me Thursday. I swear there must have been a devil making me make those mistakes.

I've extended your show to Dec. 15, as the accompanying notice explains. I was unable to do Clarence's show the way he wanted, so I cancelled it. I'm sorry it had to be, but I feel better.

I hope all is going well with you.

my best — her

Enclosed is check to reimburse you for sending the pottery. many thanks

My thanks, too, for the $100. from the Allens purchase. I'll make out a proper invoice and send it to them.
