Dear Miss Gilpin —
This cheque is long overdue.

When I saw your pictures at the Fine Arts Museum show — how long ago it seems now! —
I wanted several prints
— they were so great —
and I said so to you,
promising to sign in later about which one
I'd like to buy.

Well, fixed incomes
have shrivelled so the last year, and health and maintenance
expenses have ^{gone} so far out of control that I decided I "really
shouldn't" buy any more pictures.

To close this guilty
feeling out of my mind
every time I pass your mailbox, I had to
