Dear Ms. Gilpin -

Enclosed find a copy of the "Shiprock" Indian Legend that one of my students wanted to choreograph a dance about it.
School time ran out so it just began to start as a seed.

The legend comes from a book titled "Indian Legends of American Scenes." It was compiled by Marion E. Bradley and printed by M.A. Donahue & Company 1939.
The legends are listed by States and there are legends representing 27 states.

The Shiprock legend is the only one told from New Mexico.

Hope this helps your search.

Sincerely,

Juan Valenzuela
