Dear Laura Gilpin,

Here is a general outline of the questions we would like you to talk about on Friday. Within these general areas we hope to expand to other questions but let these serve as a general outline for the kind of information we are seeking.

Regards, and we will see you Friday at 3:00,
Alan Boye &
Sandra Harding

BACKGROUND

Where were you born, your early life etc.

Your first visit and first impressions of Santa Fe and New Mexico

Some background on your first interests in photography; your training and the early development of your career.

SOME REFLECTIONS ON YOUR CAREER

Some of the more memorable incidents in your travels.

Your trips to the Yucitan

Your travels on the Navajo Nation with Elizabeth Forster

Your hopes behind such collections as The Rio Grande, etc.

ABOUT PHOTOGRAPHY

Do you consider photography an art form.

Troubles you have encountered with getting people to accept photography as something more than merely a means of documentation.

The future of photography or its present state, etc.
