Dear Miss Gilpin:

I was sorry to have missed you in Santa Fe when I delivered the photographs that you had so kindly loaned to us for the "Roadrunner's Exhibit." As you probably noticed, two of your photographs were not delivered...the portrait of Irene Yazzie is one that we would like to purchase for the Museum's collection. The other was an oversight on my part and will be mailed to you.

Your loans helped make the exhibition a successful one and were much appreciated. Please let me know if we may purchase the Yazzie portrait.

Sincerely,

J.J. Brody
Director
