Dear Mrs Gilpin,

The Jewellery Museum in Pforzheim, West Germany, is organising a special show of American Indian Silber Jewellery this summer. All the objects to be shown belong to the Museum of the American Indian in New York, whose director Dr. Dockstader personally took them to Germany recently.

We are just preparing a small catalogue for this show and I ask you for the permission to use one of the photographs of your book "The Enduring Navajo", showing a Navajo-woman wearing jewellery. Of course we shall name you as the author of the photograph.

According to the very short time (the show will opened July 25th) will you please cable us your agreement.

I thank you very much in advance.

Sincerely yours

(Dr. Fritz Falk)
Director
