Dear Gretel;

Your letter of last September is long unanswered. I have tried a couple of times to get you on the phone, but without results. I was back at the Canyon in September just about the time your letter came, and I had a fruitful trip which I think pretty well completes the photography for the book. Whether I really will get back once more or not remains to be seen, but I have much to do in the meantime right here at home. I am very pleased as the pictures of Mary Brown and myself turned out satisfactorily. That was fun trying to communicate with her without talking. I saw her again this last time that I was there, but she was not very well and I hear just as I left that she was in the hospital. I trust she is now back at home.

In seeking funds, I think you must have written Mr. Robert Anderson, rather than my Donald Anderson. The latter is on the Board of The School of American Research, and he might be more interested, though this is somewhat embarrassing to me. I hope you can proceed with the film as long as we have made a good start. When you come again I will be moved into my new work rooms which will be finished just before Christmas. My very best wishes to both of you, and I hope we can wind up this film as you are really anxious to do so.

With best wishes,

Laura Gilpin
