Dear Bill;

I am putting in the mail today a copy of "Temples in Yucatan" which I hope reaches you in good order. It was simply great having you come along, and I enjoyed my visit with you more than I can say. I hope it will work out that I can take a flight with you. I cannot think of anything I would rather do.

Have you yet made contact with Harold Jones in Tucson? I am just back from a trip to Denver and found a long letter and list of activities of the new Center for Creative Photography. It all sounds very interesting. They are planning exhibitions and they certainly should have a stunning show of yours in the course of time and possibly my retrospective show.

I have learned that Beaumont has now bought a house and settled in Santa Fe. I have not had time yet to get in touch with him. Everything is progressing in my new work-rooms next door, and the next time you come by, I hope to be moved in, installed and at work. In the meantime, my best wishes for your continued success.

Cordially,

Laura Gilpin
