Dear Mary;

It was so nice to get to know you and to have such a wonderful time in Denver. I enjoyed it all very much, in spite of our problems with the lantern. I only hope that the people enjoyed the pictures regardless of my somewhat incoherent talk.

The mileage on my car was approximately 360 miles each way. I have deducted some for the way I got lost around Denver. Regrettably, there did not seem to be time for me to see your Curtis exhibition, which I would have doubtless enjoyed. But with so many people to talk to, there was nothing else I could do about it. I am realizing now that I have not been in Denver since the early summer of 1945, so perhaps you can understand my difficulties not finding any landmarks. It seems to me also that you should not pay for Joan Sawyer's room expense, as that was my necessity for getting around. I was so happy to see your beautiful new library building and to make acquaintance with the University of Denver. Please give Ruth Underhill my regards when you see her. I am very sorry she broke her ankle, and I hope it is well on the road to being mended. My very best to you and all who helped put on my slide business and I hope you consider it a worthwhile effort. Do come to see me when you come to Santa Fe, which I hope will be soon.

With very best wishes,

Laura Gilpin
