Dear Sirs:-

Several months ago, I received an order for a print from Mr. Llewellyn Greenwood. He had seen the picture at my exhibition last January and had sent the order direct to me. The print has been delivered and again he sent the check direct to me. I am enclosing my check for your commission which I feel is rightly yours.

I have been very surprised at the number of sales and am glad that you as well as I have profited. I have been very slow, I know in finishing all these orders, but I hope to complete it all in the near future. Sorry to have been so slow.

Cordially

Laura Gilpin
