Dear Laura Gilpin:

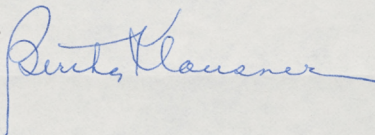

My dear friend Louise Gilbert visited here a few weeks ago and discussed your photographs and interest in Indians with me. I was fascinated listening to her and decided that if you will have me for an hour when I visit my client Hugh Prather in about four weeks, that I would consider it a great privilege.

Hugh told me that he visited you with his friend Paul Richardson and that you are a great lady.

I have been a literary agent since 1938. Among my authors are Upton Sinclair, Robert Payne, Anthony Burgess, and others probably known to you. I do not know if you have met Marianne Greenwood, but I placed her first book when she arrived in this country. I am currently representing Joe Grandee for a photo album of his paintings.

I look forward to hearing from you.

With warm regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Bertha Klausner". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Bertha" and last name "Klausner" clearly legible.
