Dear Miss Gilpin:

When Bill Garnett wrote me he was full of enthusiasm about your meeting. He did not confess however that he had practically taken up all your time the day of his visit! He was very excited about some aerals of yours.

Somehow or other I have never flown with him either. He has always promised to take me up but his schedule is such and mine is another that the two of us are never congruent.

With all good wishes.

Sincerely yours,

James F. Mathias
Vice President
