Dear Prof. Bodine:

Thank you for the prompt reply to my earlier letter offering some of my photography of the Taos Indian culture, for the Handbook of North American Indians.

I agree with you, that it is unfortunate that budgetary restrictions do not allow for color reproduction in the twenty volume work, but costs would be enormous for such an undertaking. I am sure that I can offer interesting black and white prints, if you wish.

I look forward to talking with you in person when you return to Taos in May. Since I am away from Taos for several days, from time to time, if you could let me know when you will be here, I will make arrangements to be in town.

I look forward to hearing from the photo editor at the Smithsonian with information on credits and charges, as I understand this is their area of responsibility.

This has been an unusually severe winter in Taos, with much moisture (and mud), which promises a lovely spring. I hope you have a pleasant trip back to your home town.

With kind regards,

Yours Sincerely,

Charlotte Trego

Saura- thanks so much for the deal. (I rent the enclosed photos from New Mexico
as samples)
