Dear Laura:

Many thanks for your call the other day when I was on my bed of pain. I greatly appreciated hearing from you and very thoughtful also for you to send along a copy of the catalogue of your show. I am so pleased that it has gone over this well and that you are keeping busy selling prints. Nothing quite so satisfying as actually making sales.

I am still laboring along with the remnants of my Polish cold. I simply seem unable to throw it off and the warm weather has not arrived so there is no chance to bake it out. I additionally seemed to have slipped my back out again so that the whole thing is compounded to a really miserable state. Maybe warm weather will bring us some relief!

Sal joins in love and fond greetings to you.

Sincerely yours,

Mitchell A. Wilder
