Deferred Giving Committee

CHAIRMAN

VICE-CHAIRMAN

Mrs. Charles D. Marshall
SECRETARY

November, 1975

Dear Laena:

There are compelling personal reasons for thinking about a charitable remainder unitrust. In addition to the satisfaction you derive from knowing during your lifetime that you have helped to provide for the future of Rosemary, there are very good tax reasons for such a gift in the valuable dollars you may save yourself and your family during your lifetime and, if you wish, that of your husband or another member of your family.

We hope you will consider seriously how you can help to assure the continuity of education at our two Schools. This is not a matter for haste. Just take time to read the booklet and reflect what a charitable remainder unitrust could mean both to you and to your family.

If you are interested and would like more information about charitable remainder unitrusts with Choate Rosemary Hall as the beneficiary, please write or call Margaret Marshall, the Secretary of the Deferred Giving Committee at the Schools. Or perhaps you would rather get in touch with me first. If you wish, your inquiry will be held in confidence. The Schools will give you or your attorney all the advice and assistance possible.

Please give this most serious thought. Today our Schools are alive and well; our enrollment is full and we have a long waiting list. Let us make sure that the future is as bright. Quality in education is needed in today's world more than ever before.

Altiora Petoi

Affectionately, Marion

P. S. You will be interested to learn that we have signed our first Trust. This is especially interesting, for in this case the donors have no direct connection with either School. They have lived in Wallingford all their lives and have been impressed with what Choate has done over the years. While in high school, their son used to run around the Choate track, and they were grateful for the help Bill Pudvah gave him. What I find particularly appealing is that the donor's wife finally remembered a rather nebulous connection with Choate: she used to babysit "that cute little Jere Packard". Little did she think she was diapering the future head of Choate!!

you were again in Rosemary's presence. The letter speaks for itself. I was thrilled, aged, happy, & heartily, seeing you on the "Today" show. You're the shining star of the day. The letter just says "I hope"
