Dear Laura

I am still feeling the afterglow of our good month in Santa Fe and you were by far the nicest thing that happened to me there. I very much value the time you spent with me and feel that it was very fruitful.

Those who have seen the photos I brought with me are absolutely thrilled with them. I feel embarrassed for I have already asked for so much, but I wonder if I may add to my list of requests some copies of the hands. Glossies will be fine and if your assistant can do them I won't feel so badly about asking. Actually, I think they would make a great front page for a brochure.

Just yesterday I discovered that a friend will be leaving for Santa Fe tomorrow. She is Elizabeth (Dibby) Davidson and I hastened to give her the records I was going to send to you for they will be much safer if delivered in person. She is a good musician and the conductor of the Chorus at the University of Calif., Berkeley. Thank-you for your warm friendship and all you have given me. Affectionately,
Bonnie
