Dear Laura Gilpin,

This is just a short letter to let you know that we have sent in your bill for payment, and to apologize for the delay. Our check should reach you in a week or two.

Things have been very busy here at the museum, and our photography collection is slowly growing. Jerome Liebling has come as a new professor of photography in the Yale School of Art, and the program has had quite a lift as a result. They have even convinced me to teach history of photography next semester!

Very best greetings to you,
