Dear Miss Gilpin,

What a treat it was to meet you in Santa Fe, and to see your magnificent new studio and darkroom. I wish I could have returned the next day, but my time evaporated in the Museum and before I knew it I was on an airplane to my next stop. I promise to return and see the Autochromes we talked about — and to continue our visit.

I do not know if anyone has sent you this issue of our Quarterly with the article about Mr.

Putnam. I thought you would enjoy it — and perhaps it will remind you that you have
admiring friends at the Library of Congress.

Warmest good wishes,

Alan Fern
