Pacific Grove, California 93950

Dear Mr. Nabokov;

Thank you for your letter of August 8. It seems to have been floating around as it only reached me last week. I do not know where the letter has been traveling, but my answer is long overdue, due to a delay in mail delivery. I will be happy to make you the glossy print you want from "The Pueblos". I will try to get it off to you as soon as possible. Reproduction rights on such material is roughly $50.00.

I want to be sure of the identification, as you stated your wish for the one on page 113. of "The Pueblos" book. This is a distant shot of Acoma; I just wanted to be sure that this is the one you want. Thanking you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Laura Gilpin
