Dear Laura Gilpin,

Thank you for your letter of November 11, 1975, in which you give me permission to use your Ranchos Church picture (page 77, The Rio Grande, River of Destiny) in my book in progress, Ranchos de Taos Church, The Artist's Eye.

I will certainly provide a proper credit line with reproduction of the photograph and note the individual copyright.

I would appreciate your sending me a glossy print as you offer in your letter. As I have not finished my book and haven't as yet secured a publisher, I would need to keep any glossy print you might send me for a year or so. Would such a long term loan be satisfactory to you?

cordially,

PC Gottlieb
