Fine Photographic Prints, Books, Magazines and Frames

June 17, 1976

Dear Laura,

Am just overwhelmed with goodies!

The "snapshots" taken from my window and the Golden Gate Bridge were beautiful - and how proud I am to have the window view as an original Laura Gilpin! Of course these photographs will be framed and hung.

Have just returned from a week "out of the cage" going to Chicago for the Book Sellers Convention which was to me like a carnival and very enjoyable - and then on to Atlanta for three days visit with relatives and friends.

Returned to find your package with the silver print for Dr. Robert Shimshak which I'm sure he will be most pleased with..and the color print for Pretty. I think she loved it but her mother wept. It is such a dear photograph. You remember there is a painting of a cat (done by a friend) hanging in the living room and now our new cat picture will take its place also nearby as a family treasure.

You were so wonderful to send all of this!

Imogen has not been well of late but is better now. She was on a morning CBS show recently - her usual witty self.

In July am doing "Introductions '76" a joint project with the San Francisco Art Dealers Association to introduce new talent and will close for the month of August mostly to work on the new photography book catalog. Never a dull moment with a photography gallery.

Gratefully,

Helen
