Dear Ms. Gilpin:

Thank you for the presence of the retrospective here. Its a beautiful show, the work is appreciated, and the response is very positive.

I'm sending on as much publicity as I can find. There should be another review in the paper this week. Thank you for sending the photograph for the poster.

Robert Bates, who is president of the Associate Board of Trustees, is also very happy about the show and is interested in buying a color print from the autochrome peaches still life (1912), like the one in the show. If this is not available, he would be interested in other photographs of table-top still life from around the same early period. He is a collector of American still life (primarily painting) and would appreciate hearing from you, I'm sure, at 20 Walnut Lane, Dayton, Ohio 45419.

As for me, I'd like to know if there are any platinum prints of Narcissus for sale, how much, and if autochrome originals can still be found for purchase.

Many thanks, again,

Janice Queener
