Dear Ms. Gilpin,

I am writing to you at this time to tell you how much my husband and I enjoyed meeting with you recently in your home. It was certainly a treat to be able to spend so much time with you and to see your beautiful works of art!

I do look forward to hearing from you in regards to the one-person exhibition we talked about for early fall, 1977. If the images can be ready before then I would be more than happy to exhibit them earlier in the gallery.

I am interested in showing both silver and platinum prints, and can show about forty.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience and I await the arrival of our prints - the platinum prints which the gallery purchased and the silver ones on consignment.

Our best regards -

Sincerely,

Susan
