

NOVEMBER 28, 1976

Dearest Laura:

I am thrilled to hear of your new book. I am in the midst of celebrating my one hundred and fourth birthday. (doins).

Please send me two copies of your new book and use the rest for your dear self.

my eyesight is poor but my hearing is perfect.

Ever the same old love and greatest Admiration for your splendid life..

Yours always
James - B Swift

This is a picture of
The Community House and Congregational Church.

