Dear Miss Gilpin,

I wish to thank you personally for your generous gift to buy books in memory of Agnes Scott Donaldson. Mr. Brossman sent me a copy of his April 4 letter to you.

I plan to consult with some of Angles' old friends like Sallie Payne Morgan about appropriate titles. When we have made the selections, I will notify you. Then, you will be able to inscribe the books on your next visit to Colorado Springs.

It has been several years since I saw you last. Your Colorado Springs friends speak of you often. In fact, recently Marshall Sprague, who is Vice President and Program Chairman of our newly organized Friends of The Colorado College Library, told me he planned to contact you for suggestions on a Southwest program for next fall. You will be hearing from Marsh one of these days.

Sincerely,

GEORGE M. FAGAN
