Dear Ms. Gilpin:

I can't tell you enough how much I enjoyed meeting you last week; it certainly was a great pleasure. I hope your visit to Tucson and the University was exciting. Your enthusiasm for the Center and our collection, especially the Paul Strand photographs, reenforces my personal philosophy in the Center and photography in general.

We appreciated your willingness to be interviewed on videotape for the Oral History Series. I was fascinated to hear about your involvement with the Clarence White School and your approach to photography using design as the primary element. When future generations piece together the history of the medium, this information will be very pertinent.

During the Christmas season, I hope to be in Santa Fe and would like very much to visit if there is a convenient time for you. I would love to look at your personal collection of Jackson's and Clarence White's photographs with you.

My best to you and Mary Peck.

With best regards,

P.S. Under separate cover I am returning your Museum of New Mexico catalogue.
