Dear Miss Gilpin,

I am writing again about the prepaid but undelivered prints of a photograph that you took of me in July 1974. I would appreciate further word from you about this.

Best personal regards. The "Little Shepherd" continues to adorn my office, affording me much enjoyment and attracting many good comments.

Sincerely,

Kenneth Bailey

My apology. Many things have happened to me in the last year. I am slowly catching up and will send you your prints within the next week or two days.

Best sincerely Laura Gilpin
