Dear Mr. Cooper;

At this time, we are notifying all the galleries that have handled Miss Gilpin's work in the past, that work will no longer be available for consignment. Miss Gilpin's health has not permitted her to do any new work in sometime, so we must limit the amount of prints that leave her own gallery and are on consignment to others. You will still be able to purchase work, but from her dealer, Lee Witkin, in New York. Some prints will be sold here, also, to galleries, but the dealer discount is no longer applicable.

Thankyou for your interest in Miss Gilpin's work. Wishing you the best for the New Year.

Sincerely,

Sina Brush-Morales
