Dear Mr. Glasse;

Thank you very much for your letter of February 22. I am only sorry that I don't have further information about that particular Navaho. But whatever his real name was, I think we never knew and often the people, particularly 40 years ago, had some sort of English designation. I am pleased that you loaned the picture to your friend while he was recovering in the hospital, from surgery. I hope it gave him something pleasant to look at.

I am hoping to get started next week on platinum prints and as quickly as I can locate the original large negative of "The Woman, Child and Lambs", yours will be among the very first that I will be making. I appreciate that you would like to have it. With best wishes to you and hoping that I will get this print over to you before too long.

Very truly yours,

Laura Gilpin
