Dear Mr. Guenther;

We received your kind letter of March 16 in response to the growingly embarrassing situation with sales of prints of Dr. Monsen. I was hoping very much to get some type of response from Dr. Monsen after you passed the letter I sent to you on to him. I am afraid I have not heard from him and the length of time now goes back to before Christmas. I am reluctant to ask you to intervene in Miss Gilpin's behalf, but I have no alternative since he will not answer my requests. I am aware that you are colleagues, and most likely friends and I do not like to ask this of anyone. This is the first time in all the time I have worked for Miss Gilpin that something like this has arisen. I hope that you will be able to convince Dr. Monsen that some agreement that is satisfactory to both parties must be arrived at soon. We are perfectly willing to refund money for both prints, or he can make up the difference or he can keep one print and return one and we will refund the difference to him. I hope that you will be able to accord some agreement for us. Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Sina Brush-Morales
