Dear Dr. Monsen;

After several unanswered letters to you over as many months, we wrote the Museum in Pullman asking Mr. Bruce Guenther to track you down so we could get this matter of print sales straightened out. He very kindly agreed and was duly embarrassed to write you and also received no answer. He wrote back that he could only say that there must be a good reason why you had not answered him as he found you quite reputable and an important lender to the museum. He is sure that this is an oversight on your part. I will be glad to send you a copy of his rather distressed letter if you wish. I hope it is an oversight on your part also. I have enclosed a bill for $100 as the balance due on the two prints you purchased from the museum. If I don't hear from you within a reasonable amount of time, then the museum will be billed for your prints and you may pay them back at your convenience.

Very truly,

Sina Brush-Morales
