Dear Mr. Robbins;

At this time, we are notifying all the galleries that have handled Miss Gilpin's work in the past, that prints will no longer be available on consignment. Miss Gilpin's health has not permitted her to do any work for sometime, and until she is printing again, we are keeping her work here.

You may buy prints from Lee Witkin in New York, or a few may be purchased from us; however, the dealer discount is no longer applicable. Thankyou very much for your interest and purchase of Miss Gilpin's photographs during the past.

Sincerely,

Sina Brush-Morales
