Dear Miss Watson;

Somehow your letter of March 11 seems to have been on the bottom of a pile, which explains my tardiness in answering. I remember making some photographs for Mr. Crabtree, but I don't recollect a catalog, though it is possible I have one tucked away somewhere. As soon as possible, I will try to hunt this out. But I am sure that I made some prints as you describe them while Mr. Crabtree was director. I will see what I can find in my files and let you know what I come up with. I don't believe that I knew your father here in Santa Fe, but I may have some time ago. Thank you for your inquiry.

Very sincerely yours,

Laura Gilpin
