Dear Laura Gilpin:

Thank you so much for allowing me to talk with you about Mary Jane Colter. I know you would much rather have rested after being at the doctor's office. I do appreciate the recollections you shared with me of Miss Colter. They are particularly valuable since you knew her personally and saw some of the buildings she did, most of which are now gone.

I am most indebted to you for allowing me to use your photo of Miss Colter (which I shall return) and for letting me intrude on you last week. I had heard from others what a kind and generous person you are, and I certainly agree. I hope you are feeling better.

Sincerely,
