Dear Laura:

My sincere congratulations to you on being selected to receive the 1977 Governor's Award for the Arts and Humanities.

I am sorry that I was unable to personally join in honoring you September 9. I am extremely pleased that significant cultural contributions such as yours are publicly recognized and given their much deserved acknowledgment. It is people like yourself who are to be given our thanks for the cultural development and expansion our country now enjoys.

Best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

Floyd K. Haskell
United States Senator
