Dear Ms. Gilpin,

On behalf of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art and our guest curator, Margery Mann, may I extend this much belated thank you for your cooperation on our exhibition WOMEN OF PHOTOGRAPHY.

By all standards the show was a tremendous success and the Museum is greatly gratified to you for so generously lending to the exhibition. Needless to say, your photographs added significantly to the scope and quality of the presentation.

We especially appreciated your cooperation in agreeing to extend the length of your loans to allow the exhibition to travel to additional museums. We realize the imposition it is to borrow such fine works of art for such an extended period of time, but we firmly believed in the value of the exhibition and the importance in giving national exposure and recognition to the contributions women have made in the field of photography.

Again, thank you for so generously lending to the exhibition; we are truly grateful for your support of our Museum program.

Sincerely,

John Humphrey
Curator
